Oswego Fire Awards Scholarships High School Students Recognized

(Oswego, IL) On July 13, 2020 at the Oswego Fire Board of Trustee meeting the fire department awarded two $500 scholarships. The two winners this year are Connor Winn and James Kowall. As family looked on, both recipients were presented their check by Chief Veseling.

The OFPD scholarships are given in honor of the dedicated leadership and service of all members of our fire district both past & present.

Connor is a graduate of Oswego High School and is planning on attending Waubensee Community College. Cassidy is a graduate of Oswego East High School and is planning on attending Illinois State University in the Fall.

The Oswego Fire Protection District would like to congratulate both winners and wish them the best. Good Luck!
