

Oswego Junior Public Safety Academy

Application for the Oswego Junior Public Safety Academy

Applications must be submitted to the Oswego Police Department, 3355 Woolley Rd, Oswego.

Applications are due June 3, 2021

Date: _____

Session: _____

Come join the Oswego Police & Fire Department's for our annual Oswego Junior Public Safety Academy. The academy is open to any student enrolled in a District 308 Junior High School for the 2021 – 2022 school year. There is no charge to attend. Oswego Junior Public Safety Academy Recruits/Cadets will be exposed to several different aspects of the Police and Fire profession, with a focus on the “why” rather than the “how”. Some of the topics covered will include:

- Traffic Stops
- Car accident & crime scene investigation
- Patrolling the streets
- Water flow and fire extinguishment
- K-9 demonstration
- Building searches

All topics of discussion will incorporate positive decision-making skills, with a focus on developing positive moral character. An emphasis is placed on each child's role in maintaining the quality of our community. All graduates will receive a Junior Public Safety Academy T-Shirt and Diploma.

Questions should be directed to Officer Vargas or Officer Most of the Oswego Police Department at 630-551-7300. Each session will be limited to no more than 20 cadets.
